A Very Warm Welcome to the 2017 Festival

The Theme of the 2017 Festival week is

The festival has evolved quite a bit since it started in 1968 and has grown into a series of events, which we hope covers something for everyone to enjoy. Over the years we have had celebrities such as Prunella Scales, The Proclaimers, Eddie Reader, Kate Matheson, Dougie McLean to name but a few and we hope to build on that.

We hope that you all enjoy the festival and you will support us not just with the festival but all the other events we put on throughout the year. A huge thank you to all those who have taken the trouble to run events during our festival. We cannot do it without you.

Haddington Events Group is trying to make the Festival bigger and better but as always money is paramount. The group is gradually building up the financial side of things so that we can put on as many events as we possibly can.

On a personal note, I would like to thank all the members of The Events Group who are a great bunch of people working very hard for their Community. Haddington is a town to be proud of.

LOST HADDINGTON

This year's Festival is the 49th Year since its inception in 1968, with next year marking the 50th anniversary year.

Although health & safety and modern day logistics of planning some of the bigger events have meant many of these have disappeared over the years, there still lots on for all age groups.

With next year being the 50th Anniversary, Lost Haddington is looking for any family photographic material of the previous years' Festival events. The material will be shown on the Lost Haddington Facebook pages, so get looking in granny's loft!

The material can be photos, slides or even video (cine) film, which can be copied and returned to you.

If you have any material, please get in touch through the Lost Haddington Facebook page, or email John Hamilton directly at johnxhamilton1964@gmail.com.

Here are some tasters of material already in the Lost Haddington collection.
